Upstate Forever, a non-profit organization that promotes sensible growth and the protection of special places in the Upstate region of South Carolina, invites you to a benefit performance of a provocative new play at the Warehouse Theatre.

Written by Rebecca Gilman, this play bravely tackles the issue of racism when an African-American student at a primarily white college begins receiving hate mail.

The performance is April 12, 2002 at 8:00 pm. with a reception beginning at 7:00. The cost is $35.00 per person and includes wonderful hors d'oeuvres, provided by Chef Manigault's La Vieille Maison and wine compliments of Harvard's Wine and Beverage. All net proceeds will benefit Upstate Forever.

For reservations, please call Upstate Forever at 250-0500.
