

For Immediate Release

March 25, 2004

BRAD WYCHE NAMED PRESIDENT OF SOUTH CAROLINA LAND TRUST NETWORK

Upstate Forever Executive Director Brad Wyche has been named the new President of the South Carolina Land Trust Network, an association of nearly twenty land trust organizations and government agencies working on land conservation throughout the state. A land trust is a nonprofit organization that works directly with property owners in protecting their lands through voluntary methods, such as conservation easements.

For more information, contact: Brad Wyche at 864-250-0500