

10-2-11

The Hodge & Langley Law Firm in Spartanburg announced recent personnel changes effective immediately.

Nicole Rice, employed at Hodge & Langley since May 2005 as a workers compensation & Social Security paralegal, will assume additional responsibilities including office manager and paralegal, specializing in medical malpractice and federal litigation.

Ally King, employed at Hodge & Langley since May 2011, has been hired as a workers compensation paralegal.

Regina Champion has been hired as a paralegal for Ryan Langley, specializing in personal injury and federal litigation.

Tracy Pack has been hired as a Social Security paralegal.

» THS Constructors Inc., a Greenville-based general contractor, has added three construction industry veterans to its staff.

Dan Ellis, a 40-year professional, has been named general superintendent and is responsible for supervising all field-level project activities, including coordinating with owners, managing subcontractors, maintaining quality control, adhering to the schedule, and providing a safe work environment.

Ellis

Tony

Neal has been appointed superintendent. His expertise is LEED compliant construction.

Neal

He has been in the construction industry for 23 years.

Evan Liollo has assumed the position of project manager. A 13-year industry veteran, he has led manufacturing, commercial, retail, institutional, and mixed-use development projects.

Liollo

» MAU Workforce Solutions, a staffing and recruiting firm in Augusta, Ga., has promoted Bethany Buckner Smith to recruiting manager.

She will manage and direct all transactional recruiting activities and contribute to the development and consistent execution of best practices. She also will cultivate and maintain strong business relationships with current and prospective clients and candidates.

Prior to working for MAU Workforce Solutions, Smith worked for Milliken at various facilities in South Carolina and Georgia.

» Liberty Life Insurance Company, a subsidiary of Athene Holding Ltd., has hired Tony Milin to lead its retail annuity sales desk. Milin will be based in Wilmington, Del., where he will oversee sales support and value-added services for the company's independent sales distribution.

Milin brings over 15 years of insurance wholesaling and sales management experience to his role at Liberty. Prior to joining the company he served as director of the national insurance sales desk for The Hartford.

» Upstate Forever recently announced the promotion and reassignment of several members of its staff.

According to the organization's announcement, John Tynan is Upstate For-

Tynan

Viney

Nix

Hallo

Knight

Eldridge

Garrett

Frye

ever's first deputy director; Angela Viney is now director of development; Heather Nix is Upstate Forever's Clean Air and Water program director; Lisa Hallo is the new Sustainable Communities program director; Erin Knight is now director of Upstate Forever's Land Trust Program; Clyde Eldridge has been named major gifts associate; Laura Garrett is now conservation stewardship associate; and Randall Frye has joined the Upstate Forever staff as membership and special events director.

Frye most recently served 10 years as vice president of member services with the Laurens County Chamber of Commerce.