

2012 Upstate Forever names board officers

Greenville News City People ilulie

Greenville resident Leon Patterson, chairman of Palmetto Bank, has been named chairman of the 2012 Upstate Forever board officers. Dick Carr of Spartanburg will serve as vice president, Brice Hipp as secretary and Tom Kester as treasurer. Upstate Forever is a nonprofit, membership-based organization promoting sensible growth and the protection of special places in Upstate South Carolina. Founded in 1998, Upstate Forever has more than 1,800 members and a staff of 18. For information, see www.upstateforever.org.

'The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe'

"The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe," a production of South Carolina Children's Theatre, will be presented Feb. 3-12 in the Peace Center's Gunter Theatre.

The classic C.S. Lewis adventure begins when four young children enter the land of Narnia. This dramatization was a sellout when the SCCT last produced it in 2003.

To purchase single tickets, contact the Peace Center box office at 864-467-3000 or 800-888-7768. The event is sponsored by Wells Fargo, Pepsi, BMW Manufacturing and The Greenville News.

Strings workshop

The South Carolina Governor's School for the Arts and Humanities and the South Carolina chapter of the American String Teachers Association have joined to present the fourth annual Violin and Viola Workshop on Jan. 21 at the Governor's School.

The workshop is designed for both students and teachers. Clinicians include, among others, the College of Charleston's Director of Strings and Violin Professor Lee-Chin Siow, Greenville Suzuki teacher and member of the Greenville Symphony Orchestra Kathryn McLean, Furman University's Professor of Viola and Music Education Anna Joiner, and SCGSAH Viola Instructor and Eastman Viola Workshop Kathryn Dey.

Visit www.scasta.org for the registration form. For more details, contact Katie Dey at 864-282-3764 or email kdey@scgsah.state-sc.us.
