

Transportation films to be shown in Duncan

From staff reports

Published: Sunday, January 15, 2012 at 3:15 a.m.

Local conservation group Upstate Forever and The Mary Black Foundation are bringing "Moving Beyond the Automobile" to the Tyger River Campus of Spartanburg Community College in Duncan on Jan. 26.

Created by Streetfilms, "Moving Beyond the Automobile" is a series of short films examining Americans' dependence on cars and exploring real-world solutions to transportation issues.

The 40-minute documentary will be shown at the Tyger River Campus, TRB Room. 354B, 1875 E. Main St. (Highway. 290) at 6 p.m. Jan. 26. Admission is free, and refreshments will be served. A short discussion will follow the screening. To reserve a seat, RSVP to 864-327-0090 or spartanburg@upstateforever.org by Jan. 24.

The film is the first event in Upstate Forever's 2012 Active Living Event Series in Spartanburg County. For more information, contact Sherry Barrett at sbarrett@upstateforever.org or 864-327-0090.

Copyright © 2012 GoUpstate.com — All rights reserved. Restricted use only.