Workshop on saving energy comes to library next week

From staff reports

Published: Tuesday, August 19, 2008 at 3:15 a.m.

Upstate Forever and several statewide conservation groups will present "Saving More Than Money: Energy Efficiency in the Home" on Aug. 28.

The free workshop will be from 1 to 6 p.m. in the Barrett Room at the Spartanburg County Headquarters Library.

The workshop is intended for real estate agents, builders, architects, homeowners, renovators and anyone else interested in the topic. A variety of green residential options will be discussed, and people who have built green homes will share their stories.

Green building products will be displayed during the workshop, which is sponsored by Neely's Building Supply and Eco-Realty International.

Call Upstate Forever at 327-0090 or e-mail nbarrett@upstateforever.org to register.
