It's a day-long event that should fill participants with more than just a decent breakfast.

Southern Living Magazine, Furman University, Upstate Forever, Greenville Forward, Carolina Foothills Garden Club and others plan a one-day symposium on Friday, Oct. 24 at the Younts Conference Center at Furman on how citizens, neighborhoods and developers can work together for the "Greening of Greenville."

Registration of $75 includes breakfast and lunch, materials and tour of The Cliffs Cottage at Furman. For more information, call 294-3777 or email rsvp@furman.edu. Register online at www.furman.edu/hortsym/.
